RE: Final results of changed circumstances review – polyethylene retail carrier bags from Thailand (A-549-821)

1. On 09/02/2015, Commerce published in the Federal Register (80 FR 53111) its final results in the changed circumstances review of the antidumping duty order on polyethylene retail carrier bags from Thailand (A-549-821).
2. The order was revoked with respect to polyethylene retail carrier bags from Thailand manufactured and exported by Thai Plastic Bags Industries Company Limited (A-549-821-001) effective 07/28/2010 (75 FR 48940; 08/12/2010). In the final results of the changed circumstances review referenced in paragraph 1, we determined that TPBI Public Company Limited is the successor-in-interest to Thai Plastic Bags Industries Company Limited.
3. Accordingly, CBP is directed to terminate the suspension of liquidation for all shipments of polyethylene retail carrier bags from Thailand manufactured and exported by TPBI Public Company Limited which were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after 04/28/2015. All entries of the subject merchandise manufactured and exported by TPBI Public Company Limited that were suspended on or after 04/28/2015 should be liquidated without regard to antidumping duties (i.e., release all bonds and refund all cash deposits).
4. No suspension of liquidation or cash deposit requirement shall be in effect with respect to polyethylene retail carrier bags from Thailand manufactured and exported by TPBI Public Company Limited.
5. If there are any questions by the importing public regarding this message, please contact the Call Center for the Office of AD/CVD Operations, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at (202) 482-0984. CBP ports should submit their inquiries through authorized CBP channels only. (This message was generated by OI:TES.)
6. There are no restrictions on the release of this information.
